POPULAR REACTIONS.

Buckle, in his great work on the Civilization of England, lays it down as an axiom which he had deduced from a close study of British history, that "In the progress of misrule and injustice, while things seem to be at their worst, a great reaction is always preparing." This conclusion is eminently philosophical, so far especially as the race of people speaking the English language are concerned. The history of the Anglo-Saxon race shows that, in England, every advance to improvement in government has been preceded by a period of misrule. The notorious maladministration of King John gave birth to Magna Charta, the great foundation of English liberty. The arbitrary exercise of prerogative by Charles the First caused the institutions of England to be settled on a new basis of Parliamentary right. The stupid tyranny of James brought in William and Mary, with a new settlement of the crown in the interests of the people.

The Anglo Saxons are a reflecting race; they are patient to endure wrongs to a certain extent, but they are not indifferent to them, and are certain in the end to redress them, and that with a remarkable degree of prudence. As the people of the United States derived their institutions almost entirely from England, and, in a large degree, their blood, they have inherited the best qualities of the English people, and, to a very considerable extent, have formed their political character on the English model.—The conservative features of our Government, as, for instance, the unity of the Executive power, the independence of the judiciary, the Senate the republican counterpart of the aristocratic House of Lords, are all English ideas, adapted, with necessary modifications, to our system. The Constitution, in other respects, is full of principles derived from England.

As our institutions are instinct with English ideas, so our people have in a certain degree the English character. In particular, they have two leading qualities characteristic of the English—common sense and justice. The axiom of Mr. Buckle applies, therefore, as well to America as to England. Things had gone to excess in this country under the persistent teachings of fanaticism, and the animosities engendered by a gigantic civil war had envenomed public sentiment. Some imagined necessity of guarding against the danger of a new secession had also had its effect. Under the influence of these causes, intensified by a systematic falsification of the social status of the South, the people of the North had yielded their approval of what may be called the repressive policy of Congress. Presuming upon this apparent popular support, and in a certain sense deceived by it, the Radical leaders adroitly seized the occasion to force upon the Southern States the policy of universal suffrage, thus practically putting the Anglo Saxon race of the South under the government of the ignorant blacks. But in this experiment the leaders of the Radical party had miscalculated. When the people of the North, recovering partially from the animosities engendered by the war, came to consider the Africanizing policy which Congress had set on foot, they began to see that it was policy stupid beyond measure, that it promised the indefinite continuance of misrule at the South, and intended to the most violent and dangerous antagonism of races. They saw that if the South was to be governed by its ignorance, and not by its intelligence, that its progress must be vastly interrupted, and instead of being a benefit to the North, it would be a barren appendage. They also saw that by delivering ten States to the negroes they put themselves to a large extent under negro rule. The advantages of this they could not so well perceive, in that it became very evident to the people of the North, that in no sense, either political or material, were their interests to be promoted by Africanizing the South. Then their sense of justice revolted at the idea of forcing upon the white race of the South—a people of their own blood—the horrors and degradations of negro rule. Unwilling for themselves, and in their own States, to divide their political power with the blacks, who were but a handful in comparison with their own teeming millions, they felt that it was an outrage to force a negro domination on their own race in the Southern States. The people are just—they are noble—their instincts are for the right, and well is it that such is the case; for otherwise self government would be impossible. No people can govern themselves without virtue. It is the nobility of the popular heart that gives vitality to a republic. What can be imagined baser, meaner, viler than for men in the North to refuse to allow negroes to vote by their side, and yet force the Southern whites to submit to this. The common sense of the Northern people satisfied them that it was inexpedient to put the ballot in the hands of their own negroes; their sense of right made them feel that what was bad for them was bad for the South.

Hence, then, we had the great reaction against the Radical policy of Africanizing the South. It is the good sense of the American people, and their sentiment of right protesting against an enormity, with which modern history contains no parallel, and which, the more it is considered, and the more enlarged the experience of it, will be found subject to such outrageous evils that its authors will become the scorn, and scoff, and bye-words of our history.

The Mercury tells of a Radical candidate at Meridian, Mississippi, who, returning from preaching, took a sable damsel up behind him. As he rode off an influential old darky exclaimed, "I jes as soon vote for dat ar man as a nigger."

The New York Tribune says that $500,000 in elect on bets have been paid over in New York. Congressman Morrissey gets about $15,000.

United States Senator Frelinghuysen has not been heard from since the election. It is said he has gone on an exploring expedition after his "highest type of manhood."

Reverdy Johnson has a cataract in his eye; but how many younger men have a waterfall in both?

Frank Vizitelly, the correspondent of the London Illustrated News during the war, is to edit the Fifth Avenue Magazine in New York.

Many families have left Cherokee county, Alabama, within a few weeks, to seek a home elsewhere, and others will soon follow.

From the N. Y. Herald.

NEGRO BARBARISM—EXPERIENCE OF THE WEST INDIES.

There is now scarcely a telegram that reaches us from the West Indies that does not tell of horrible atrocities and servile outbreaks by the black sons of Africa—outbreaks dignified by the name of revolutions. Yesterday we announced a new rebellion in Jamaica, and the fact that in one parish alone four hundred negroes were ready for revolt. The island is in panic, the white population seriously menaced, trade and commerce stagnant, and civilization buried still deeper under a load of barbarism.—Hayti presents the same sad and revolting picture of a movement in the direction of barbarism. On the 12th, of October the scene in the legislative chambers was very violent. Even the negro President, Salnave, "became so audacious as to incite a rabble of women and boys to attack the House of Assembly. This they did amid loud vivas for Salnave, and cries of 'Down with the Assembly!' hurling, at the same time, bricks, bottles, sticks, &c. The dwellings of many were vigorously stoned. The American Consul was fired at, but escaped unhurt."

These are the pictures of negro rule, of negro independence, of negro suffrage.—These are the pictures of a country governed by the blood of Africa. In Jamaica more than a generation has passed since the negroes were thrown to the front and forced to make an effort to maintain themselves at the level of the white man. How well they have succeeded let the present troubles demonstrate. They have not only been going on from bad to worse, but civilization itself has been dying out even where it existed among the whites. The blacks, instead of rising to the level of the white population, have gradually lowered the whites to the basest standard of morality and intelligence, until we have the picture of a magnificent West India island sinking to the fearful barbarism of Central Africa. If Jamaica presents this in one light, Hayti and St. Domingo present it in still bolder relief.—Here we have the full focus of negro efforts at civilization. First a war against the whites, then a war between blacks and mulattoes, then what may be denominated a kaleidoscopic war, in which color has warred against color in all the endless changes, forming magnificent revolutionary combinations, very beautiful to look at at a distance, but death to participate in.

In drawing the picture of Hayti, St. Domingo and Jamaica we are only photographing upon the American mind in advance the picture that Congress is trying to impress upon the United States by false and barbaric legislation. Radical rule as exposed to-day means down with the white man! up with the negro! Down with intelligence! up with ignorance! Down with civilization! up with barbarism! And they ring all the changes on the skull of the negro which, were it not as tough as a drumhead, would burst under the blows. Never has such miserable legislation fallen to the lot of any nation. Never in the most degraded days of Roman history did they descend to forcing barbarism to the surface that it might swamp intelligence. Never did a nation try to throttle itself by voluntarily placing the black hand of Africa at its throat. Never did statesmen before descend to the dregs of humanity to bathe their hands in its worst filth that they might besmear with it such a civilization as we have reached in 1867. But they are not statesmen; they are demagogues who, to prolong political power, would willingly plunge the nation into fifty years of civil strife. They must be overturned before they effect our national ruin. The people, the common sense of the country, must stand between them and the ruin towards which they drive. It is not yet too late; but four years more of such legislation would ruin any country, though it had ten times the backbone of the United States.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

NEW FALL AND WINTER GOODS FOR 1867.

Old Prices Reached the City and Stopped at

A. CREECH'S,

R. SMITH'S CORNER,

Fayetteville Street.

I AM NOW RECEIVING MY FALL AND WINter Stock of

Staple and Fancy Dry Goods,

And I can say, with safety, that I have one among the largest and most complete stocks that has ever been brought to this City, either before or since the war,—embracing almost any and everything suitable for Ladies' and Gentlemen's wear.

CALICOES, 10, 12½, 15, and 18 cents per yard.

FRENCH MERINOS, 75 cts. to $1,25 per yard.

DELAINES, POPLINS, and a great variety of other Dress Goods, embracing all the new novelties of the season, and will be sold cheap enough to insure sales.

BROWN DOMESTICS, 12½, 15 and 20 cts. per yard.

BLEACHED DOMESTICS, 12½, 15, 20 and 25 cts. per yard, and all other goods in proportion.

Also, the largest and most varied stock of

CLOTHS,
CASSIMERES,
SATINETS,
TWEEDS,
AND KENTUCKY JEANS

I ever offered to the trade in this City, both as to price and quality.

Also a very fine assortment of White and Colored FLANNELS, &c.

LADIES' CLOAKS,
BREAKFAST SHAWLS,
SQUARE AND LONG SHAWLS,

which will be sold at prices to suit my customers.

Ladies', Misses' and Children's TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS,—new styles, from 50 cents to $4,00 each.

Boots and Shoes, Boots and Shoes.

The largest and best stock I ever brought to the City, consisting, in part, of J. Miles & Sons' make and others of equally high standing.

Ladies' Pegged Balmorals, from $1 to $2.

Ladies Sewed Balmorals, from $1,50 to $3,50.

CREECH'S is the place to come to buy your Boots and Shoes.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the head, or whether I missed the nail entirely, or failed to advertise "selling out at cost," I have sold out my old stock, (while they are still hammering away over their old stock,) and have been North and bought a new stock. My goods are now in Store, and opened for inspection.

COME AND LOOK AT THEM.

I told my customers, six months ago, that I would sell goods as cheap as Yankee, Jew or Gentile, and I think I have made my word good.

I told the people to come to Creech's to buy their goods, that I would serve them right. Hundreds have come, and they are still coming from this and adjoining Counties. And I here take the privilege to say, I think they have shown their good judgment.

Don't forget to come to

A. CREECH'S,

RAILROADS.

IMPORTANT TO CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Wilmsboro', Columbia, Smutterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact whenever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston D. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1867.

THE ELECTIONS IN THIS STATE.

From the general backwardness of the white Conservative people of this State to vote, which we judge has been quite general, we conclude that the State Convention will be sufficiently Radical to carry any measure they may desire.

We consider such a result a misfortune, a great misfortune, yet it is owing entirely to the indifference of the white Conservatives to vote. Many of them failed to register,—perhaps 25,000 in the State who are entitled,—yet our registration was ample to have enabled us to carry the State, but for the failure of so many of the white registered voters to vote in the election.

STATE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

The results of the election, throughout this State, will serve to convince every sound Conservative of the necessity of a more complete and thorough organization of the Conservatives than has heretofore been attempted. The influence of a secret Order in the State, for political purposes, yet so framed as to make the detection of its real designs difficult to be known, and guarded in such a manner that even those who have ceased to co-operate with them are afraid in many instances to oppose them, constitutes the most formidable party engine, ever before set on foot in this country.

It is especially so, when these secret Leagues are composed of the great body of ignorant blacks, who are led on by men of their own color, who, in turn, are led by the worst white men in the State. This is, at present, the condition of North Carolina. To make this secret organization effective, its obligations are not only very religiously set forth in its formulas, but are enforced by most solemn oaths. Still, among an ignorant mass, even this was not esteemed a sufficient guarantee. The colored people were constantly plied with the most extravagant promises, with the most fearful threats, and all these were backed by the most false charges against the Conservatives. They were told that the Conservatives were opposed to their freedom and would again involve them in bondage—that they were the enemies of the blacks, and such like. All which every one knows is utterly false.

We say that these facts indicate very clearly the necessity of a more thorough organization among Conservative men. We hope, therefore, that the call for delegates from every County in the State to a State Convention, to be held in this City on the 11th of December next, will be responded to universally. Let the strongest and ablest men of the State, as well as the "bone and sinew," be sent to the Convention. We want men of great intelligence and ability to be here, but we also desire to see men of great prudence and sobriety of judgment in that Convention. We hope to see early meetings called in the several Counties to appoint delegates to this Convention.

THE NEGRO.

The meagre and scattering returns thus far received of the elections held in this State, on Tuesday and Wednesday, are sufficient to demonstrate that it has been here, as in the other Southern States in which military "elections" have been held. The negroes, with a few isolated and laudable exceptions, have gone or been driven, en masse, into the support of the Radical candidates. They have shown here, as else where, by their course, that they are in favor of the disfranchisement of a large class of the white population, and, encouraged and emboldened by success, wherever they have achieved it, they will grow in the exorbitance of their demands. In one comprehensive word, under the leadership of a few bad and reckless white men, native and imported, they have formed a Negro Party; and but one course is left to the white race, as a pure and simple measure of self-defence and personal protection. We must meet the issue that has been invited,—we must at once and thoroughly organize the white men of North Carolina, who are worthy of the name,—we must consolidate and unite all our strength,—in order to secure the continued ascendancy of the rule of the Anglo-Saxon in North Carolina. Persuasion, expostulation, argument and warning seem alike to be lost on the negro. He has imbibed the idea which has been distilled, drop by drop, like slow poison, into his ears, by renegades, that the white man, as a race, is his enemy,—that the time has come when Africanization is to be regarded as the highest type of civilization,—and nothing can divest that idea, but the stern determination of the white race of this whole country,—North and South,—to assert the supremacy of the race which founded, built up and has heretofore ruled the Republic.

The lines are not as yet strictly drawn, for the reason that, here and there, there are misguided or mean whites, who have not, in the former case, been able to see or appreciate the tendency of events, and, in the latter, are so vindictive and malevolent as to have reversed within themselves all the laws and instincts of nature. These last will remain in their present association.—They can best subserve their unhallowed designs in such affiliations. But the timid and the deluded will yet and soon see how grievous has been their error and will atone for it. This revulsion will come, when they witness the next stride of "African progress,"—which, we predict, will be a disposition to nominate candidates, in every case, among their own number, and an effort to secure the offices and the places of power for their own dusky race.

TEN DOLLARS A-PIECE.—It is known, to their credit, that some fifteen or twenty colored men, in this city and vicinity, turning a deaf ear to the inflammatory and incendiary appeals of the black and white-black Radicals, voted the Conservative ticket. Their names are known, and their white friends will exhibit, in the most substantial manner, and on every occasion, their appreciation of their conduct. They will never repent their excellent and sensible course, while those who are now abusing them will yet see their folly and madness.

By the way, we would suggest that each of these colored men have his photograph taken at Watson's, forthwith, and send it to Jim Harris. He promised $10 a-piece for all such, and the Republican Executive Committee will doubtless supply the funds to enable him to keep his word.

RADICAL RASCALITY.—The Wilmington Journal says that at Masonboro' Sound precinct, in New Hanover, all white men were denied the right to vote, unless they voted the Radical ticket. Two of the most respectable citizens of the County, thus excluded, although they had conformed to all the registration requirements, promptly went to Wilmington and reported the fact to the military authorities. What action was taken by the latter has not transpired.

DEATH OF R. C. PEARSON, ESQ.—We regret to hear of the death of R. C. Pearson, Esq., who died at his residence in Morganton, last Sunday night. Mr. Pearson was a highly respectable and useful citizen, and his loss will be deeply felt by the citizens of his town and county.

From the Wilmington Journal

CONSERVATIVE STATE CONVENTION.

We hope the people in this section of the State will not forget that it is proposed to hold a Convention of the Conservative party at Raleigh, on the 11th of December. Several counties have already held meetings and appointed delegates. Others will do so, and the meeting of the Convention seems certain. The time is not distant, and steps should be immediately taken in all the counties to be represented by their ablest and best citizens. Regardless of the issue of the election now in progress, the Convention will be the most important ever assembled. For the want of efficient organization, the Conservative party—the whites of Virginia and Arkansas—have been defeated by the negroes, and the same thing may be true in North Carolina.

The apathy of our people, which has been the cause of Radical successes in some of the Southern States, has been promoted by a want of confidence in the ability of the Conservatives, North and South, to defeat Radicalism, if not a positive fear of the success of the Revolutionary and agrarian schemes of that party. Itinerant lecturers, Bureau employees, patriotic candidates, paid correspondents and immaculate editors, have been threatening our people with the wrath of Congress, should they refuse to accept the Reconstruction Acts, and vote for the adventurers who are striving to reap the advantages of negro ignorance. Our people, distrustful of any relief, disgusted with all political strife, have, in a great measure, grown indifferent as to the purposes of Radicalism, and shrink from the base means and disgraceful tools employed to attain them.

Now, however, that the Northern people have spoken, and condemned the Radical-negro supremacy schemes—having proclaimed that this is a white man's government, while protection and freedom shall be extended to all, and that its destiny, like the establishment and maintenance of the Union, shall be under the control of the whites, it is due them that we should arouse ourselves and take the outstretched hand of friendship offered us. We must organize a party in full fellowship and sympathy with the constitutional men of the North.

It is also necessary for the welfare of our local interests that we should organize and support a Conservative party. Important elections must yet take place before the people of the country can sweep away the iniquities which Radical mis-rule has engrafted in the legislation of Congress. Though we honestly believe our grievances would be temporary, they would be serious, and to prevent present harm and future danger we should assemble together in order to consolidate our strength. The work is of such importance as must certainly enlist the sympathies and aid of all who desire the future peace and prosperity of the State and country, and the defeat of a party which is using the ignorant and prejudiced negroes to subvert everything dear and sacred to the Southern people—to inaugurate a war of races and plunge the country into anarchy or despotism. Let us meet together peacefully, calmly, but earnestly. Rising above mere party measures and party movements, all efforts should be directed to an honorable and permanent reconstruction of the Union and reconciliation of the sections, and to the peace and welfare and prosperity of North Carolina.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE TO PRESIDE AT THE OPENING OF THE CIRCUIT COURT OF RICHMOND.—THE TRIAL OF JEFF. DAVIS.

I learn that Chief Justice Chase will return to Richmond on the 25th of this month, and preside at the opening of the Circuit Court of the United States. He will deliver the charge to the Grand Jury, and will then return to this city, not having time to remain throughout the session, on account of the meeting of the Supreme Court, at which he is compelled to be present. The counsel for Jefferson Davis will object to their client being put on trial before Judge Underwood, and will resist to the extent of their ability his being tried before that Judge. This will probably cause a postponement until the May term of the Court. It has been ascertained from an official source that Davis will be tried on the indictment now pending.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald.

NED HORTON ACQUITTED.—The trial of this worthy colored man, who shot three Radical negroes who, with a crowd of several hundred others, were endeavoring to mob him on election day for voting the Conservative ticket, took place before Mayor Branch yesterday, and resulted, we are pleased to state, in his being unhesitatingly acquitted, it being clearly shown that Ned acted with extraordinary forbearance during the entire affair, and only defended himself from the murderous horde of enraged and vindictive blacks when forced to do so in order to save his own life.—Lynchburg News.

Nearly eight thousand tickets were sold at Boston for Dickens' readings, and so great was the crowd, that a police force was required to see that fair play was observed. A few tickets in the hands of speculators were sold at twenty dollars each.

LETTERS OF ITINERANT.

FRANKLIN, MACON CO., N. C.
Nov. 12th, 1867.

THE SEASONS.

The two ends of North Carolina, Eastern and Western, have suffered this year from opposite causes. In the East, there was complaint of too much rain; in the West too little. There is no little complaint out here of dry weather, and that crops suffered for want of water. But to a Down easter the crops look as though they had not suffered from anything. The truth is, people are about the weather, very much like old Tom Tidler's neighbors were about his wig.—Some thought it was too long, some too short: some thought it too gray, some not gray enough. The old man got a band box, a pair of scissors, a box of powder and a pair of curling irons, and put them and his wig into his band box, and sent it around to the ladies to dress up his wig to suit themselves. One trimmed, another curled, another powdered, until, among the many varying tastes, the old man's wig was ruined.

OUR UNIVERSITY.

The enquiry has been made, in these distant parts, accompanied with apparent anxiety and concern, "Is Chapel Hill going down?"

This College has many a living graduate, now scattered over this and other States.—It has also many friends who never saw its walls, but who are deeply interested in its welfare. And well may the country feel deep concern for the prosperity of its Colleges. They are the life of any land. They furnish Army, Navy, Commerce, Agriculture, Manufactures, and all the world, with scholars.

But, with deference to older and wiser heads than that of a mere traveller, I am not in full sympathy with all I see in print, about "Our University." Colleges are the people's property, and the people have a right to discuss them. On this I base my right to speak after a three years course at Chapel Hill. I have but to say, had I my course to go over again, I would like to go over that course. Had I a son to send, I would like to send him to Chapel Hill as it was from '47 to '50. A more rigid discipline I don't want. More thorough drilling I never witnessed. Better scholars, I have not met since, than the professors then, nor more prompt or diligent men. A recitation unsaid in class, was said in odd and extra hours. Absence three times from chapel exercises, assumed a serious aspect with the Faculty.

I shall go to my grave with only veneration and gratitude for what the University did for me, and what the venerable President Swain has done for the University in his day.

WALHALLA.

A railroad has been partly constructed from Charleston, S. C., to Knoxville, Tenn., to run through or very near Franklin. Its present terminus is Walhalla, S. C., some twenty odd miles distant from F. From that point, this extreme part of North Carolina is reached. There is no such scenery it seems to me in our State. The further West you go, the more enchanting the country gets. I used to hear people speak of Iredell county, as the western part of North Carolina. When I reached Iredell, I thought Morganton a long way off. When I got to Ashville, I thought I was almost out of reach, but at Franklin, I thought Ashville far to the East; and at Franklin, the advice is still, by all means go to the western parts. It is an immense country, and one no North Carolinian should fail to visit, if he can.

The route would be by Morganton and Ashville and out West by private conveyance. But if the party desired to go by Rail, he should go to Columbia, S. C., and then to Walhalla by Rail—here he finds a livery stable. Then to Franklin, and a hundred other points. The cost of board here would afford a margin to pay the railroad tickets. I know a physician who boards in one of the western towns, and gets good board at two dollars a week, but pre sume this is no criterion.

THE NANTA-HALA.

West of this town of Franklin, runs the far famed Nanta-hala. This spelling is pronounced, by the Indians, to be incorrect.—They say it is Nanta-yala. Nanta means river; hala means devil, whilst yala means the female breast. The legend is, that a young and gallant Indian was traversing the country, and suddenly descried the river running gracefully between two beautiful mound-shaped hills; whereupon he exclaimed, Nanta-yala! and this name was given to the stream. The geographer who changed the name must have been a stoic.

Just where the Nanta-yala empties into the Tennessee, is the point at which it will meet the Western Extension of the North Carolina railroad, on its way to Greenville, Tenn., the home of Andrew Johnson.

FRANKLIN.

This quiet little town, the County seat of Macon, was originally called Maidsville. It is but half a mile from the site of the old capital of the Cherokee nation, and is one of the most important towns in western Carolina. It is certainly an inland town.—It is some five hundred miles from the Atlantic coast. It lies on the western bank of the Tennessee River, and is but some fourteen miles from the Georgia line.

JESSE R. SILER.

Few persons travel much in this far West, without learning the name of Jesse R. Siler. He was the first white settler in this region, and is now living in Franklin. Although quite old, he is a man of some physical vigor, and attends in person to his business. He came when Indians only lived here. He, too, has lived to see a town built on what was in his youth an Indian territory. Indeed, there is a settlement, I learn, of some fifty Indians, a few miles distant from Franklin. He has lived long enough to see this section of North Carolina pretty well supplied with Silers, Junior.

Two of Mr. Siler's sons married sisters of Gov. Swain, who lived and died at Franklin.

Just after you cross the Tennessee, between that river and the town, stands what seems to be an Indian mound, although the Indians themselves ascribe it to a race of people more ancient than themselves. They have a supposition among them, that it was made by pilgrims who made annual visits to this point, and year by year brought a little earth at a time, until this mound was made,—some twenty feet high by say fifty in length. It is supposed to have been built in commemoration of some distinguished man.

Certain it is that it is very old. It takes one back to other days—long before he himself saw the light. It starts the imagination on a tour over past centuries, and brings up a people of different speech, color and manner from ours; but a sweeping wind, the very breath of death itself, noiseless, yet fatal, has removed even their last offspring, their homes, their horses; and even their mounds, built for posterity, time is pulverising even these; successive suns and storms are sending them, in drifting sands, to the river, never more to be gathered this side of eternity itself.

Just here I turn my back to the sunset.—The West is a phantom; the further it is pursued, the further it recedes from the pursuit. It has been a long, but not wearysome journey. It has lain through a region of remarkable hospitality. But there is a time for everything. For me, this is the time to stop. To-night a vision of home plays before me, with its two little angels and their mother.

Where my next will be dated, is at present uncertain, but wherever it be, it will show that I am still an

THE METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA—THE QUESTION OF UNION.

Messrs. Editors:—As the question of Union between the M. E. Church, South, and the M. P. Church, is now creating some interest, I append the proceedings on this subject of the late Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church for the District of North Carolina, which held its session near Kittrell's Springs, November 6, 1867. Yours truly,

W.

The subject of Union between the M. E. Church, South, and the M. P. Church was referred to a special Committee of three persons. Two reports were brought into the Conference—one from the majority and the other from the minority. On motion, both reports were laid upon the table, and the following paper, submitted by Rev. Wm. H. Wills, considered and adopted:

WHEREAS, this Conference, at its session of 1861, had the question of Union between the M. P. Church, and the M. E. Church, South, before it, and gave expression to its views by the adoption of the report of a Committee, to whom the subject was referred; and

WHEREAS, this Conference, at its session of 1866, re-affirmed its previous action and adopted certain other principles as a guide to their representatives to a contemplated Convention of the Church; and

WHEREAS, said Convention assembled in Montgomery, Ala., in May, 1867, and adopted the report of a Committee providing for the appointment of a Commission, consisting of one Commissioner from each Annual Conference, to confer with a Commission from the M. E. Church, South, which Commissioners are to meet in Macon, Ga., on the 1st. day of May, 1868; and

WHEREAS, the Convention authorized our Commissioners to re assemble said Convention in Lynchburg, Va, on the last Friday in May, 1868, if in their judgment they deem it proper: Therefore,

Resolved, that we regard the following principles as being essential, and that neither our Commissioner to Macon, Ga., nor our representatives to the Convention, should it re-assemble, will be authorized to accept of, or concede, anything short of these:

1. A modification of the Episcopacy; that is to say, an increase of the number of Bishops so as to have one for each Annual Conference, and an article inserted in the discipline recognizing the Episcopacy as an office, only, and limited in its duration.

2. The abolishment of the Presiding Eldership.

3. That the identity of our Church shall be so far preserved as to remove the word "South" from their name, and to incorporate some other, such as "The United Methodist Church," or "the Reformed M. E. Church."

4. The right of appeal by the ministers from the stationing authority, and the right of trial of the membership by Committee or by the Society at the option of the accused.

5. An equitable Lay representation; i. e. of a delegate to the Annual Conference from each Circuit and Station.

6. That the same right shall be given to vote by classes, as well in the Annual as in the General Conference.

PARTY LINES.

The polling of votes in this city has progressed sufficiently far to enable us to see how the party lines are drawn. With very few exceptions the negroes have ranged themselves with the Radicals and against their own true friends, the white people among whom they have been raised. There were many strong ties that bound the master to his former slave, even after his emancipation, and these ties have remained unbroken, in many cases, notwithstanding all the base, ingratitude and ignorant jealousy displayed by the negro towards him. But the wilful and deliberate banding of the negroes into leagues was a proclamation of political and social hostility to the white people of the South, and the prosecution of this hostility by voting in a compact mass against all the interests of the white—voting with a party that has taken the ballot from the hands of the whites, which has persecuted, and reviled, and denounced the whites as traitors and demons, such a culmination of the wickedness and folly of the negro has proved too much for the patience of the whites. Henceforth he accepts the issue which the African tenders him—henceforth he will assert his claims to the sovereignty of this State with all the strength that God has given him; and, in future, when the negro succumbs, as he eventually will, just as surely as he now lives, should he find that less liberal terms are accorded him than have heretofore been offered by our people, he may derive consolation from the recollection that he invited the issue, and forced it upon those who desired to be his friends; and he will have abundant occasion, too, to curse those false friends to whom, in an evil hour, he listened with credulity.—Charlotte News.

RUMORS RELATIVE TO GENERAL SHERMAN.

Some anxiety is manifested here to learn what disposition will be made of Lieutenant General Sherman when he arrives, as it seems to be pretty clearly settled that he is destined to occupy some official position in the District of Columbia. Various rumors are afloat in regard to the duty that will be assigned to him. One is that he is to have command of the Department of Washington. The latest explanation, however, of General Sherman's coming here prepared to make a prolonged stay is much more likely than the other, and comes from a source eminently trustworthy. It is that General Grant has, with the sanction of the President, directed General Sherman to come to Washington to assume the duties of General-in Chief of the army during the time that General Grant occupies the position of Secretary of War ad interim. The General has hitherto been discharging the duties of both offices, either of which furnishes enough business to keep him employed during office-hours. It is also stated that General Grant does not so soon expect a release from the War Department, notwithstanding the rumors and statements to the effect that the President would immediately remove Mr. Stanton outright and appoint a permanent Secretary of War. The President has given no authority for the statement that he would in a few days substitute a permanent Secretary for General Grant.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World, 19th.

OFFICERS OF THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU TO BE MUSTERED OUT.—It is understood that the President will soon order that General Howard and General Gregory, both of the Freedmen's Bureau, be mustered out of the service as Major Generals of Volunteers. These are the last two officers of that rank remaining to be mustered out. General Howard will still retain his place in the regular army, but General Gregory, who was a volunteer officer, goes out of the service entirely.—Wash. Chronicle.

HOME CERTIFICATES
From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, (one a terrible case of eight years' standing,) in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.
Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.
W. A. DARDEN, Sr.
Wilson, May 11th, 1867.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, MD., March 4th, 1867.
Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nearly two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the cough settled form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.
Yours respectfully,
MRS. E. ANN SMITH.

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson, N. C.:
My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1866, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassiday, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.
Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?
Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience, that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

ELECTION RETURNS.

WAKE.

Raleigh: Fowle 625, Blake 607, Mangum 612, McLean 607. Harris (negro) 1,243, Williams 1,194, Andrews 1,201, Franklin 1,196. For Convention 1,598; against 270. Total vote 1,868.

Rolesville: Fowle 120, Blake 80, Mangum 80, McLean 80. Harris 185, Franklin 183, Andrews 182, Williams 182. For Convention 289; against 11.

Barney Jones': Fowle 133, Blake 132, Mangum 126, McLean 131. Harris 101, Williams 96, Andrews 95, Franklin 94—For Convention 199; against 34.

Nat. Jones': Fowle 103, Blake 102, Mangum 102, McLean 101; Harris 54, Williams 54, Franklin, 54, Andrews 54. For Convention 81; Against 76.

Dunnsville: Fowle 103, Blake 104, Mangum 105, McLean 104. Harris and the Radical ticket 100. For Convention 170; Against 44.

Auburn: Fowle 187, Blake 186, Mangum, 186, McLean 186. Harris 128, Williams 128, Franklin 129, Andrews 128.

Lows'.—Fowle, 59; Blake, 59; Mangum, 59; McLean, 59; Harris, 71; Williams, 79; Andrews, 79; Franklin, 79.

Oak Grove.—Fowle, 101; Blake, 94; Mangum, 93; McLean, 93; Harris, 157; Williams, 161; Andrews, 161; Franklin, 164.

Hays' Store.—Fowle, 50; Blake, 48; Mangum, 49; McLean, 42; Harris, 38; Williams, 40; Andrews, 39; Franklin, 40.

Sorrell's.—Fowle, 26; Blake, 15; Mangum, 15; McLean, 15; Harris, 85; Williams, 115; Andrews, 116; Franklin, 123.

Morrisville.—Fowle, 59; Blake, 59; Mangum, 59; McLean, 59; Harris, 67; Williams, 67; Andrews, 67; Franklin, 67.

Spike's.—Fowle, 22; Blake, 19; Mangum, 18; McLean, 19; Harris, 83; Williams, 67; Andrews, 93; Franklin, 97.

Harris (negro) and Andrews, Franklin and Williams, white Radicals, are certainly elected by a considerable majority. The white men of the county have no one to blame for this result but themselves. The blacks, it will be observed, have almost uniformly voted up to their registration, while the white vote falls quite one-third behind. In Raleigh, perhaps, there were between forty and fifty of the white men, who voted the Radical ticket, and in the County 150 or thereabouts. But at least an equal number of colored men either voted the Conservative ticket or refrained from voting. Had not the white men of Wake manifested so much apathy and indifference, they could have easily elected their ticket.

Nat. Jones' is, we believe, the only exception to these remarks. The white men there polled their full strength.

Defeated though they are, our candidates, and, especially, Judge Fowle, have established a claim upon the gratitude of our people, which can never be forgotten or ignored.

ORANGE.

Hillsboro: Graham and Holt, Conservatives, 355; Hedrick, 338; Jones [negro] 337. For Convention 342; Against 352.

White Cross: Graham and Holt 86; Hedrick and Jones 43.

Chapel Hill: Graham 215, Holt 216; Hedrick 249, Jones 238.

Durham's: Graham and Holt 261; Hedrick and Jones 135. For Convention 135; Against 261.

Graham and Holt, Conservatives, certainly elected.

NEW HANOVER.

Abbott and Ashley (white Radicals) and Galloway (negro) elected, of course.

CRAVEN.

Heaton and Sweet (white Radicals) and Pearson (negro) elected to the Convention.

ALAMANCE.

We regret to learn that the Hon. R. Y. McAden is probably defeated in this County. It is the old story. The whites, by hundreds, refused to vote or have anything to do with the election.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE SENTINEL.

The scarcity of money obliges us to urge every person indebted to this office for subscription, advertising or job work, to send us the amount due, or a portion of it, at once. Those who cannot spare the amount for subscription for a year, or six months, will oblige us by sending it in for a less time. Our expenses are all cash and must be paid.

The Washington Union, a regular Copperhead journal, has raised the name of Gen Sherman for President.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Sun-Burners, Lamp Chimneys, Fire-Backs: J. Brown (with Hart & Lewis.)

Agricultural Ware-House and General Commission Business: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

SOIRER MAGIQUE.—Sargent's Illusions, last night, at Tucker Hall, were really wonderful. Most of his feats are splendidly executed and defy detection. It is seldom that this community has an opportunity of witnessing an exhibition, in this line, so entirely meritorious. He holds forth again to-night.

The distribution of gifts affords amusement enough for twice the money.

CALVIN J. ROGERS.—We hear of several instances of fraud practiced by Radicals in this County, in the late election, which we may feel it our duty to ventilate at the proper time. But we have, from several sources, accounts of the conduct of the man, whose name heads this paragraph, which we cannot refrain from exposing at once. It is said that, in more than one instance, he imposed upon illiterate white men, who expressed a desire to vote the Conservative ticket, Radical ballots,—leading them to believe that they were such as they had asked for. "One renegade is worse than ten Turks," and Rogers is no exception. He is the same man whom Pont Taylord wished to eject from the Radical Convention in March last.

A PRINTING ESTABLISHMENT FOR FIVE DOLLARS.—E. H. Britton, Esq., Proprietor of the Lincoln Courier, published in Lincolnton, proposes to dispose of the establishment in the following novel manner:

The plan is to prepare three hundred envelopes, containing slips of equal size in each, and in one of them the prize will be inserted, in the presence of a committee of gentlemen, who are to mix the envelopes and cause them to be drawn to each number until the whole are withdrawn, when they will be opened, the one containing the prize be ascertained, and the fortunate holder apprized of the result. The chances are fixed at $5 each.

The establishment consists of an Imperial Washington Press, with Self-Inker, and Newspaper and Jobbing Material,—the latter all new.

The Courier is a sprightly and popular paper, and the location, we should judge, is an excellent one for a newspaper.

SOUTHERN RAILROADS.—The special committee on Southern railroads has concluded the work of taking testimony, and the report to be made to Congress is now in course of preparation. It will show that the Companies have paid their indebtedness to the Government as rapidly as they could; that they have been doing very little business since the close of the war, but that it has been gradually improving. They have been paying much more promptly since the formation of this committee that they did before.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. Herald, Nov. 17th.

The Baltimore Sun estimates that in Minnesota, wherein negro suffrage has just been voted down, there are only fifty-two negroes who could have been made voters.

"GOLD AS A STANDARD OF VALUE."—Forney's Chronicle contains a leading editorial under the above caption. It was stolen from a British periodical. The thief scarcely tried to conceal his guilt.

MARRIED,

At the Roxboro' Hotel, Nov. 17th, by C. Hamlin, Esq., Capt. R. F. LOSWELL, formerly of Evansville, Indiana, to Miss MAGGIE WHEELER, of Roxboro'.

DIED,

In this City, on Thursday morning last, at the residence of Dr. Martin, Mrs. FANNIE C. P. HILL, relict of the late Secretary Hill, in the 79th year of her age.

Mrs. Hill had been a devoted Christian and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, since 1824. Her early life was passed in the midst of wealth, refinement and gaiety. Connected with many of our first people from the early history of the State, her history, if written, would be full of incident. But from the days of her religious profession to her death, she shunned the blandishments of this world, and chose the more pleasant and peaceful walks of self-denial and piety.—Fond of her large circle of relatives and friends, her days were cheerful, though much afflicted.—Her last days were much spent alone, in converse with God. We are sure her end was peaceful and happy and she rests from the sorrows of life in Abraham's bosom.

She expressed a desire to be buried by her first husband, the late Joseph Blount, Esq., in the burying ground at Oxford, in a plain coffin and with the simple burial service.

The friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Hill, and the friends of the family, are respectfully invited to meet at Dr. Martin's residence, this morning, at 9 o'clock, whence the remains will be removed to the Central Depot, to be conveyed to Oxford for interment.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21, P. M

In the Senate several petitions were presented including one from the negroes of the District of Columbia, complaining of discharge on account of voting and praying for relief.

The Secretary of the Treasury was ordered to communicate the documents and reports bearing on the repeal of the cotton tax.

Mr. Sumner introduced a bill striking "white" from the district laws and ordinances.

Mr. Edmunds introduced a resolution that debt, unless expressly otherwise stated, is payable in coin.

Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—The credentials of Mr. Butler, of Tennessee, were referred to the Election Committee. Pending the report, Butler was excluded, by a vote of 117 ayes, and 38 nays.

A discussion was sprung by the Democrats on referring the whole Tennessee delegation to the Election Committee, which elicited an angry debate. The Democrats voted against excluding Butler.

Mr. Robinson, of New York, introduced a resolution impeaching Minister Adams for neglect of duty in failing to protect innocent Americans charged with Fenianism in England.

Blaine, of Maine, renewed his resolution regarding the repeal of the cotton tax. Adopted.

Mr. Wilson announced that the Judiciary Committee would be ready, on Monday, to report on impeachment.

The following is the article on the elective franchise as finally adopted by the reconstruction Convention as a part of the new Constitution:

Section 1. Every male person born in the United States, and every male person who has been naturalized or who has legally declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States, twenty-one years old or upwards, who shall have resided in this State six months next preceding the election, and three months in the County in which he offers to vote, except as hereafter provided, shall be declared an elector; provided, that no soldier, or sailor, or marine in the military or naval service of the United States, shall hereafter acquire a residence by reason of being stationed on duty within the State.

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the General Assembly to provide from time to time for the registration of all electors. But the following classes of persons shall not be permitted to register, vote or hold office:

First, those who during the late rebellion inflicted, or caused to be inflicted any cruel or unusual punishment upon any soldier, sailor or marine employee or citizen of the United States, or who in any other way violated the rules of civilized warfare.

Second, those who are or may be, disfranchised by the proposed Constitutional amendment, known as the fourteenth article and the act of Congress passed March 2nd 1867, except such persons as have aided the plan of reconstruction, proposed by Congress, and accepted the political equality of all men, before the law: Provided the General Assembly shall have power to remove the disabilities incurred under this last clause.

Section 3. All persons before registering must take and subscribe the following oaths: "I do solemly swear that I will support and maintain the Constitution and laws of the United States, and the Constitution and laws of the State of Alabama. That I am not excluded from registering by any of the clauses in Section 2nd. of this article. That I will never countenance or aid in the secession of this State from the United States. That I accept their civil and political equality of all men, and agree not to attempt to deprive any person, or persons, on account of race, color or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege or immunity enjoyed by any other class of men; and furthermore that I will not in any way injure or countenance in others any attempt to injure any person or persons on account of past or present support of the government of the United States, or of the laws of the United States, or the principle of the political and civil equality of all men or affiliation with any political party.

Resolutions were adopted expressing entire satisfaction with the military administration of Maj. Gen. John Pope, and tendering him the thanks of the people of Alabama for the firm and impartial course which he has pursued. Three votes were given against these resolutions.

The office of Lieut. Governor has been created.

The Convention will probably conclude its labors this week.

To the Bond Holders of the North Carolina Rail Road Company.

Office N. C. Railroad Company, COMPANY SHOPS, N. C., Nov. 9th, 1867.

MOST OF YOU HAVING AGREED WITH MY predecessor, Mr. Webb, to take new for your old bonds, I take this method of informing you we are now ready for the exchange.

To capitalists I would say, we will sell $500,000 of eight per cent. coupon bonds, secured by mortgage on the Road, and payable in five, ten, or twenty years, as the purchaser may desire, interest payable semi-annually.

The debt of the Company is about $700,000. Bonds to fund this debt will be issued.

The property mortgaged to secure the payment of these bonds is worth in currency seven millions of dollars. There can be no better security.

The bonds will be sold only at par.

DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1867.

"HE WOULD A-WOOING GO."

"Father, where is our Jamie to-night—
Jamie, so bold and so gay?
The twilight shadows are falling low,
Why does he stay away?
Jamie is handsome, and manly too,
And he will be good and great;
But, father, why is our darling boy,
A staying away so late?"

"Our noble boy is a child no more,
He has grown to man's estate.
He has gone a-courting Minnie Gray,
The reason he stays so late.
For her golden hair and eyes of blue
Have stolen his heart away,
And he goes in the holy twilight hour
A wooing sweet Minnie Gray."

"Why does the maiden lure him away,
Now we are growing so old?
And we have shielded him all his life,
Our love has never grown cold.
The maiden can never love as we
Have loved him all his years,
Who have led him along the path of life,
Sharing his smiles and tears."

"But, Millie, remember long years ago,
When I was handsome and gay,
And you a maiden so fair and sweet
That you stole my heart away.
I had a father old and gray,
And a mother kind and true,
Who loved me fondly all my life—
But my heart went out with you."

A blush crept over her withered cheek,
Her eyes shone clear and mild,
No longer she chided the lovely maid
For winning away her child.
A thought of the long ago, when she
Stood close to her lover's side
The little church, and the man of God
Made her a happy bride.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE MOON UPON BABIES.

The moon is thought by old wives to influence the life of a child. Thus the child born on the first day of the new moon is fortunate in all its undertakings, and will live long; one born on the fifth day will be vain and deceitful; one born on the sixth will live long; one born on the seventh will have a life of trouble; one born on the ninth will be rich; one born on the tenth will be a great traveler; one born on the eleventh will be a devotee to religion; one born on the sixteenth will be grateful and unfortunate; one born on the eighteenth will be brave; one born on the nineteenth will be full of malice; one born twenty-first will be strong and healthy, but selfish; one born on the twenty-second will be cheerful, but inclined to low society; one born on the twenty-third will be ungovernable, will forsake family and friends, and wander in a foreign country—unhappy through life; one born on the twenty-fourth will have extraordinary ability; one born on the twenty-fifth will be desperately wicked and come to a fearful death; one born on the twenty-seventh will be amiable; one born on the thirtieth will have the acme of all good gifts, temporal and spiritual.

A baby's nails must never be cut till it is a year old, or it will be a thief. A child with a blue vein across its nose will never wear its wedding clothes; should it chance to outlive its infancy, it will bring sorrow and disgrace to all belonging to it. A babe that cries at its christening will not live long; if you bathe it on Sunday it will be sorrow free; if on Wednesday, it will grow beautiful; if on Thursday, it will grow fat; if on Friday, all its sins will be forgiven; if on Saturday, it will be wealthy.

There are certain other superstitous applying to the town people: If you cut your nails on Sunday, it provokes Monsieur le Diable to such a degree that he'll shave you all the week, and lead you into mischief. If you clip your hair at the new moon, it will grow long at the full; as the moon wanes your hair will fall out. If you don new clothes on Sunday you'll be happy; if on a Monday, they'll tear; if on a Tuesday, they'll burn; if on a Wednesday, you'll have plenty; if on a Friday, you'll be unlucky; if on a Saturday, you won't live to enjoy them. Every one, silently or openly, is a little suspicious regarding Friday, yet few could give a reason.

HUMOR IN ANIMALS.

Fun is by no means confined to man.—It is frequently asserted that although naturalists have discovered and named 'the laughing jackass,' 'the laughing hyena,' 'the laughing cockatoo,' there is but one animal which really indulges in 'what you might call a laugh,' and that is our old friend, the dog. The horse laugh is a humbug; but the horse would laugh if he could, for he is not deficient in a sense of the humorous. We have known, in our time, a sly old horse which would slide up to a bystander and put his hoof on the unfortunate wight's foot in a manner which would not soon be forgotten. It was a common trick with him; but no professed practical joker could have done it with his own sole, in a more inadvertent manner. The comedy of 'The World a Mask' declares that 'a horse is a gentleman;' and this may give us a key to the gravity of our Eclipses and Dobbins, since a horse laugh has long been regarded as anything but gentlemanly.—Colonel O'Kelly's parrot would scream for the dog Rover until he obeyed her summons, and then frighten him away by yelling, 'Get out!' Small birds chase each other about in play; but, perhaps, the conduct of the crane and the trumpeter is the most extraordinary. The latter stands on one leg, hops about in the most eccentric manner, and throws somersaults. All animals pretending violence in their play, stop short of exercising it. The dog takes the greatest precaution not to injure by his bite; and the ourang-outang, in wrestling with his keeper, pretends to throw him, and makes feints of biting him. Some animals carry out in their play the semblance of catching their prey; young cats, for instance, leap after every small and moving object, even to the leaves strewed by the autumn wind; they crouch and steal forward, ready for the spring; the body quivering, and the tail vibrating with emotion, they bound on the moving leaf, and again spring forward to another. Benger saw young jaguars and cougars playing with round substances like kittens. Birds of the magpie kind are full of mischief. There is a story of a tame magpie, that was seen in a garden, gathering pebbles, and, with solemnity and studied air, buried them in a hole made to receive a post. After dropping each stone it cried 'currack!' triumphantly, and set out for another. On examining the spot, a poor toad was found in the hole, which the magpie was stoning for his amusement. There is fun in animals and birds. Indeed there is.—Meridien Recorder.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, GREATLY FACILITATES the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay ALL PAIN and spasmodic action, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for years, and can say in CONFIDENCE AND TRUTH of it what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS IT FAILED in a single instance to EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operation, and speak in terms of commendation of its magical effects and medical virtue. We speak in this matter "WHAT WE DO KNOW," after years of experience, and PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the Syrup is administered.

Full directions for using will accompany each bottle.

Be sure and call for

"Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup,"

having the fac-simile of "CURTIS & PERKINS" on the outside wrapper. All others are base imitations.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE.

IN OBEDIENCE to a decree of the Superior Court of Law for the County of Franklin, I shall proceed to sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Court House door, in the town of Louisburg, on Tuesday the 10th day of December, 1867, all the Real Estate of Pasaon Nichols, deceased, (subject to the dower of his widow,) lying in the Counties of Franklin and Nash, consisting of

Two Hundred and Sixty-four Acres, adjoining the lands of Dr. Gray Sills and Dr. Jno. W. Jackson and Benjamin Wheiss.

The said land will be sold under the decree of the Court, to make assets for the payment of debts. It lies within less than one mile of a good and permanent school and a Church, in a healthy, moral and intelligent community, and presents a most favorable opportunity for persons wishing to find a pleasant home. THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

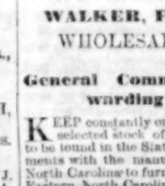
This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine



IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

A large Stock of the most celebrated manufacture of Gents' and Ladies' Boots and Shoes, Gaiters, &c.

Now is the time for you to lay in your supply of Goods, for they are advancing North. I am selling at cost. Come one and all and examine my stock and prices. Do not be induced to buy goods elsewhere until you give me a call. When I say I am selling at Cost I mean just what I say; it is not for the purpose of humbugging you.

Merchants in the City whose stocks need replenishing would do well to call soon and make their purchases.
